LOCAL NEWS WHEN IT MATTERS MOST

As the calendar turns to August, WSIU will continue its coverage of the COVID-19 pandemic and its effects on the economy, education, and more. Schools are scheduled to begin their new academic year – but with the disease continuing its spread, it’s unclear just what that year will look like.

“Our reporters are working daily to bring the latest information to our audience. Things are changing so quickly, it’s hard to stay on top of what you need to know. But WSIU’s award-winning staff is committed to providing accurate, timely, and relevant information to the public,” Associate Director for News & Public Affairs Jennifer Fuller said. “We know how important this is – and we want to make sure you can make decisions about your life with all the information you need.”

And education isn’t the only area WSIU is focusing on: the economy, Election 2020, and social issues are still top priorities, as well. We’ll begin our look at how those issues are affecting voters in the region, leading up to the November General Election. NPR and PBS will provide national coverage of the Republican and Democratic National Conventions, and WSIU will explore how those national issues are impacting southern Illinois, and the broader region.

Do you have news to share? We’d love to hear from you! Send us an email at wsiunews@wsiu.org, or call the newsroom at (618) 453-6101.

RADIO SCHEDULE CHANGES AUG. 1

MEMBERSHIP SUPPORT
Membership dollars are the most reliable source of funding for WSIU. Membership revenue is essential to our operating budget and allows WSIU to deliver quality programs and services. PBS programs, NPR programs, and in-depth local programming are possible only through individual support from our viewers and listeners. With your membership support each year, you become part of the award-winning service that WSIU Public Broadcasting provides to thousands of individuals, families, classrooms, and businesses across our region through news, public affairs, educational, artistic, and cultural programs.

SUSTAINING GIFTS
Monthly giving through an automatic account deduction is an easy and efficient way to support WSIU Public Broadcasting. There are no checks to write – your gift will be debited automatically from your bank account once each month. Or, you may choose to have your credit card billed monthly in simple installments. Either way, your automatic gift plan is convenient for you and helps reduce administrative costs.

MATCHING GIFTS PROGRAM
You may be able to double, even triple, the value of your contribution to WSIU. Many corporations will match your contribution – and we thank these businesses for their generous support. Contact your Human Resources department to obtain matching gift information or forms. Once you have completed the form and signed it, send it to our membership office and we will take care of the rest. These forms can be sent separately from your contribution payment.

LEGACY GIFTS
A gift to WSIU from your estate – through a variety of vehicles, including wills, trusts, and life insurance policies – can enrich the lives of this entire region while offering tax advantages to you and your family. Charitable bequests provide a strong foundation for WSIU Public Broadcasting while ensuring its future for generations to come.

It is through transformational gifts like these that WSIU Public Broadcasting can continue to build financial stability for the years ahead, ensuring that our listening and viewing region will have access to the quality and relevant programs and services that we strive to provide daily.

LEADERSHIP LEVEL GIVING
The Leadership Circle recognizes donors who give an annual gift of $1,000 or more, providing a solid foundation upon which WSIU Public Broadcasting’s programs and services are built. This is a dedicated group of individuals who believe that WSIU can and does improve the quality of life for the communities and people we serve, and who choose to make a substantial contribution to our work. Support at the Leadership level is critically important.

For WSIU to be truly successful in strengthening our communities, it is essential to have the support and belief of individuals who are willing to make a deeper investment in our stations. Leadership Circle members also enjoy special benefits, including:
- Invitations to exclusive events and previews
- Behind-the-scenes updates on upcoming programs, services, and activities
- Personally guided tours of WSIU

CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP
Whether your business is large or small...retail, professional, business-to-business, governmental, or nonprofit...multi-state or around the corner, there is tremendous visibility in underwriting programming and outreach services at WSIU. Our audiences associate our underwriters’ names, products, and services with the high-quality WSIU programs that they love – and that underwriting partners help to make possible.

In today’s crowded media environment, public broadcasting stands above the crowd for its quality, credibility, lack of commercial clutter, and its ability to deliver active, educated, and affluent audiences that aren’t accessible through other media outlets. WSIU audiences understand and appreciate quality, they value services they can trust, and they are loyal to underwriters who provide support for public broadcasting.

VOLUNTEER
Student and community volunteers play a vital role in helping the WSIU stations to fulfill our academic and public service missions. Volunteering at WSIU offers you a great opportunity to make new friends while learning more about the broadcasting industry. There are many volunteer options from which to choose: production and operations assistants, membership assistants, readers for the Southern Illinois Radio Information Service (SIRIS), pledge drive on-air talent, and more.

VEHICLE DONATION
Donate a vehicle to WSIU and help keep quality programming on-air. Each donation helps WSIU provide listeners and viewers with creative and engaging programs. Make a difference today! Your vehicle is towed free of charge, and the donation is eligible for a tax deduction.

Donating a car is fast, easy and secure. WSIU accepts any vehicle running or not - including cars, trucks, boats, RVs, motorcycles, and more.
